1 day kicking or snapping camps $325

The one-day kicking and long snapping camp is identical to the first day of our nationally renowned academy. For the beginner, this format "kick-starts" a career down the right path by immediately teaching how to practice and develop skills the correct way under the trained eyes of professional instructors. For the more advanced athlete, this is an opportunity to review, recharge and even "tune-up" development while continuing to advance skill level, reach goals and improve personal rankings. For the college-bound athlete, it is an opportunity to perfect fundamentals, fine-tune skills and show college coaches and recruiters the most recent performance capabilities through our national ranking system.

2 day kicking or snapping academy $450

From beginning to end, Prokicker.com's innovative training is designed to teach athletes the fundamentals and techniques that allow them to coach themselves. Professional coaching staff guides participants through a skill-learning process where every experience has a purpose. This allows each athlete to identify personal needs, develop individual skills and at the same time create a blueprint for practice and improvement. Prokicker.com's academy is the most comprehensive kicking, punting and long snapping instructional camp in American football. No other program incorporates kickers, punters and long snappers into a two-day training session to accelerate skill development.

Advanced instruction

The second day of our Academy includes an in-depth review of the individual skills and fundamentals taught on the first day. Training begins by developing these same techniques in a systematic order that matches the sequence in which the skills are executed in games. This not only promotes faster skill improvement, it also enables a much deeper retention of learning. Kickers, punters and long snappers are provided a unique opportunity to train and develop together as their individual skills continue to improve. This innovative approach of integrating "snap-to-kick" instruction is crucial to skill development and separates our program from all the others. Such an approach enables each athlete to effectively learn how to transform individual practice routines into game-day performances. More importantly, every athlete will gain a valuable learning experience through drills simulating the pace and pressure of an actual game!

National rankings FOR GOAL SETTING, COLLEGE RECRUITMENT AND SCHOLARSHIPS

At Prokicker.com academies every athlete is charted to determine skill level and track individual progress. Measurements and times are scored precisely in the same way that college and pro coaches record them — there is no favoritism. This information not only provides a measure for skill development and setting goals, it also provides each athlete a tremendous opportunity to "raise the bar" on his most recent performance capabilities. What is most unique about our ranking system? Once an athlete attends for the first time and records an initial "baseline" measurement, his score can only go up. This allows athletes to continually improve their individual "ranking" throughout an entire year for college recruitment and scholarship opportunities! This information is crucial for college coaches and recruiters, who by using our system have immediate internet access to information available 24/7. No other program has a more current and accurate listing of the nation's top ranked players with information on their most recent performances. ▶ Prokicker.com and click on national rankings

Skill Charting Only Camps $175

These camps are ideal for the advanced athlete who is pursuing an athletic scholarship and wants to focus on "raising the bar" on his state, regional and national ranking. Charting will be done in the morning of the first day of each academy session at training sites all across the US. This is a great opportunity to elevate skill level and at the same time improve individual ranking for every college football coach and recruiter in the country to see! Once a baseline score is recorded individual rankings can only go up! Results of top prospects will be sent via USPS, email, and through press releases — and also through direct phone contact with head coaches, special team coaches and recruiting coordinators who are in immediate need of a kicking, punting or long snapping prospect.

SKILL TECHNIQUE VIDEOS $100

These videos are highly recommended for college-bound student-athletes in pursuit of recruitment and scholarship opportunities. These videos can be used by college coaches and recruiters for the evaluation of individual talent and skill. This individual filming is optional and is done in addition to the filming and video analysis provided during the two-day kicking and long snapping academy and during the one-day kicking and long snapping camp.

BRING YOUR SNAPPER

Prokicker.com recommends kickers and punters encourage their long snappers to attend camps also. Since all three positions work closely together, skill development will not only enhance individual and unit performance, it will also improve special teams overall.

They have developed numerous specialists at every level of the game including high school, college and the NFL. Not only do they teach the technical skills, they teach the much-needed mental skills that will give every athlete a competitive advantage.”

Why choose Prokicker.com?

Most kickers, punters and long snappers do not have access to a coach or proper instruction to learn and develop at an elite level. They are in many cases on their own. At Prokicker.com, athletes learn to start taking charge of their own skill development from the moment training with our professional staff begins. More importantly, athletes learn and develop the skills and techniques necessary for coaching themselves on their own.
