WHY choose prokicker.com long snapping camps

Participants develop self-reliance and learn to coach themselves. Most kickers, punters, and snappers do not have a coach or anyone who really knows how to teach them. They are simply on their own. At prokicker.com long snapping camps athletes learn to start taking charge of their own skill development from the very moment training with our professional staff begins. More importantly, the athlete learns and develops the skills and techniques necessary for coaching himself!

- * Professional teaching for athletes at every skill level—beginner, high school, college and pro!
- * Each participant receives "personal attention" and learns to coach himself.
- * No one has a more comprehensive long snapping, kicking, and punting instructional camp—NO ONE.
- * With over 50 separate locations across the country, there's a Ray Guy | ProKicker.com Academy that's nearby.

INSTRUCTION FOR ALL LEVELS

Whether seeking guidance for the first time, trying to win a starting position on a team or pursuing a college scholarship—our two-day instructional camp is a crucial step in becoming self-reliant while in pursuit of athletic goals. At every training site all across the country each athlete receives one-on-one attention allowing him to develop his personal talents. Every athlete is individually charted to determine "baseline" skill level and to track personal progress. This information not only provides a measurement of development, it also provides each athlete a tremendous opportunity to "raise the bar" on skill performance, set goals and continually improve his "ranked" position.

INSTRUCTION, PERSONAL ATTENTION SKILL CHARTING AND TALENT SEARCH

2 day long snapping academy [$425] From beginning to end, every step of the way, our innovative training program is designed to teach each athlete the fundamentals and techniques that allow him to learn to coach himself. Our professional coaching staff guides participants through a skill-learning process where every experience has a purpose. This allows each athlete to identify personal needs, develop individual skills, and at the same time create a blueprint for practice and improvement. Our Academy is the most comprehensive kicking, punting, and long snapping instructional camp in American football. No other program incorporates kickers, punters, and long snappers into a two-day training session to accelerate skill development.

Advanced Instruction The second day of our Academy includes an in-depth review of the individual skills and fundamentals taught on the first day. Training begins by developing these same techniques in a systematic order that matches the sequence in which the skills are executed in games. This not only promotes faster skill improvement, it also enables a much deeper retention of learning. Kickers, punters, and long snappers are provided a unique opportunity to train and develop together as their individual skills continue to improve. This innovative approach of integrating "snap-to-kick" instruction is crucial to skill development and separates our program from all the others. Such an approach enables each athlete to effectively learn how to transform individual practice routines into game-day performances. More importantly, every athlete will gain a valuable learning experience through drills simulating the pace and pressure of an actual game!

National Rankings FOR GOAL SETTING, COLLEGE RECRUITMENT + SCHOLARSHIPS

At every Prokicker.com Academy and Camp every athlete is charted to determine skill level and track individual progress. Measurements and times are scored precisely in the same way that college and pro coaches record them—there is no favoritism. This information not only provides a measure for skill development and setting goals, it also provides each athlete a tremendous opportunity to "raise the bar" on his most recent performance capabilities. What is most unique about our ranking system? Once an athlete attends for the first time and records an initial "baseline" measurement, his score can only go up—not down. This allows athletes to continually improve their individual "ranking" throughout an entire year for college recruitment and scholarship opportunities! This information is crucial for college coaches and recruiters, who by using our system have immediate internet access to information available 24/7. No other program has a more current and accurate listing of the nation's top ranked players with information on their most recent performance capabilities.

1 day long snapping camps [$300] The one-day kicking and long snapping camp is identical to the first day of our nationally-renowned Academy.

For the beginner—this format "kick-starts" a career down the right path by immediately teaching how to practice and develop skills the correct way under the trained eyes of professional instructors.

For the more advanced athlete—this is an opportunity to review, recharge, and even "tune-up" development while continuing to advance skill level, reach goals and improve personal rankings.

For the college-bound athlete—this is an opportunity to perfect fundamentals, fine-tune skills and show college coaches and recruiters the most recent performance capabilities through our national ranking system.

Skill Charting Only Camps [$175] are ideal for the advanced athlete who is pursuing an athletic scholarship and wants to focus on "raising the bar" on his state, regional and national ranking. Charting will be done in the afternoon of the first day of each academy session at training sites all across the US. This is a great opportunity to elevate skill level and at the same time improve individual ranking for every college football coach and recruiter in the country to see! Results of top prospects will be sent via USPS, email, and through press releases—not to mention direct phone contact with Head Coaches, Special Team Coaches and Recruiting Coordinators who are in immediate need of a kicking, punting or long snapping prospect.
